

all of the wonderful family and friends that have accompanied me to show support for me today.

I am also fortunate to be joined by two former Members of this illustrious body, Mr. John Paul Hammerschmidt and the senior Senator from Arkansas, Senator TIM HUTCHINSON.

For 26 years, Congressman Hammerschmidt served the Third District of Arkansas and set a standard of excellence and dedication that the people of the third district have come to expect from all that have succeeded him. I share Congressman Hammerschmidt's immense respect for this institution and for the good people that I have been elected to serve.

Senator HUTCHINSON continued the rich tradition of tireless service to the third district and is doing a wonderful job representing Arkansas in the United States Senate. I look forward to working with him and the rest of the delegation on behalf of our home State.

I also would like to take a moment to thank former Congressman Asa Hutchinson, who recently departed Congress to head the Drug Enforcement Administration. President Bush recognized Asa's talent and selected him to lead the Nation's efforts to eradicate illegal drug use. It is by no means an easy job, but if anyone is up to the task it is Asa Hutchinson.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to follow in the footsteps of these fine public servants. I am committed to keeping alive the tradition of service and conservative values that the people of the third district have come to expect from their representative in Congress. I look forward to my service in this body and again express my deep appreciation for the welcome I have received. Thank you very much.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SHIMKUS). The Chair will entertain 10 one-minute speeches per side.

HONORING ANN MILLER AND TED MALIARIS

(Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to recognize two patriotic Americans from my congressional district today, Ann S. Miller and Ted Maliaris. They have written and produced "A Tribute to America—a 21st Century Anthem."

Ann Miller's song is delivered with love and compassion by her son Ted with the help of their publicist Angel Duke. Theirs is an anthem for all Americans, dedicated to our Armed Forces, to our men and women in uniform, risking their lives every day and for those who need to carry on in this time of crisis.

The lyrics are powerful and uplifting: "Our tears may fall and our hearts may be shattered, but deep down in our souls we are strong. We are proud. We are bold. We have the strength. We have the power no terrorist could withstand. We will not hide. We will not cower. We will stand up for the rights of our land. We are America. We are America, America, you are grand."

Please join me in congratulating Ann S. Miller and Ted Maliaris, two proud Americans, proud to be serving our country.

WORLD AIDS DAY

(Mr. FOLEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. FOLEY. Mr. Speaker, since AIDS was first recognized 20 years ago, 58 million people have been affected; and at the current rate of spread, the total will exceed 100 million by 2001.

According to the Centers for Disease Control, there are currently over 900,000 people infected and living with HIV and AIDS in the United States. There are approximately 40,000 Americans infected each year. Worldwide this year there were 5 million new cases, and of that, 800,000 were under the age of 15.

Worldwide there are over 40 million people currently living with HIV and AIDS; 18 million are women and 3 million are children.

AIDS kills more than 7,000 people in sub-Saharan Africa each day. President Bush this year has committed over $200 million to a global fund to fight HIV and AIDS. I have requested additional money along with other Members of Congress to pursue this very worthy goal.

Today we should reflect on those lost and use their memories to fuel our efforts to eradicate this pandemic.

REMEMBERING WORLD AIDS DAY

(Ms. KILPATRICK asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. KILPATRICK. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to acknowledge and commemorate World AIDS Day, which is Saturday, December 1. Today, worldwide, AIDS is the fourth largest killer of people. Forty million people, as has been said, are living with AIDS today. As has been said, 900,000 here in America and 13,000 in my own State of Michigan. Half of the infected cases are young adults between 13 and 25.

The cost of treating AIDS is astronomical. Our health system is not able today to carry that cost, and we must invest in our health system from top to bottom so we can treat those who are infected.

It is important because countries around the world, including Africa, Eastern Europe, the U.K., Australia and Japan, are seeing increasing cases of HIV and AIDS. We must educate young people as well as others how to prevent the scourge of AIDS and carry out that responsibility. We must also invest resources so our health care system can treat.

IN APPRECIATION OF U.S. CAPITOL POLICE

(Mr. PITTS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, since September 11 America has been extra security conscious. Congress too has been taking extra precautions to make sure the people who work here are safe and as they do the people's business. We have extra jersey barriers up and a couple of side streets are blocked off to traffic. There is one more measure that I think we need to recognize. The Capitol Police are working overtime, a lot of overtime.

The dedicated officers of the Capitol Police have been working 12-hour shifts with only 1 day off a week. They are doing this to keep all of us safe. They are doing this to protect this building. This building is the symbol of American democracy. It is the symbol of freedom around the world.

So thanks to the men and women of the Capitol Police, the rookies and the veterans alike. Do not think that you are not appreciated. What you are doing is greatly appreciated by all of us.

THE BIG BITE

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, as a former athlete, I thought I saw it all. Great celebrations after grand slams and Hail Marys. But this time it has gone too far.

News reports say after a game-winning goal at a soccer match in Spain, a player celebrated his teammate who scored by biting him on the genitals.

Beam me up.

Now I have heard of high fives, back slaps, butt slaps, but this takes the family jewels.

The team says the player is doing fine, but I suspect he will speak from here on in like a soprano. This is going a little too far. I yield back what has now become known as "The Big Bite."

HONORING CHANCE KRETSCHMER

(Mr. GIBBONS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1
